*OUTREACH & VACANCY NOTICE - 2017****
Engine Captain ~ Wildland

Mooretown Rancheria - The Fire Department Air & Wildland Division is looking for those Fire Fighters that are interested in a career opportunity, those that make it through our process will be use to fill positions on our Engines, Water Tender and Type 2 "IA" Fuels Crew. Members will uphold the tradition of excellence and maintain solid reputations as multi-skilled professional firefighters. Crews will travel all over the United States in support of other Tribal and BIA programs by helping to fill positions on engines, hand crews and aviation.

Firefighting - especially wildland firefighting - is an attractive career for those who enjoy an adrenaline rush and want to protect other people. The education requirements are often little more than a high school diploma, although professional courses in wildland firefighting are required to earn certification - called an Incident Qualification Card or Red Card, which indicates that these firefighters have the training to fight forest fires. Wildland firefighters move around the country going where they are needed to fight fires, but these jobs are often seasonal. Read on to learn about the pros and cons of a career in wildland firefighting to decide if it's right for you.

Phone: (707) 984-6197
Fax: (707) 984-6201

- B. The Pack Test - is a job-related test of the capacity for arduous work. It consists of a 3-mile hike with a 45-pound pack over level terrain. A time of 45 minutes, the passing score for the test, approximates an aerobic fitness score of 45, the established standard for wildland firefighters. The energy cost of the test is similar to the energy cost demanded on the job. The test is correlated to measures of performance in field tasks such as working with handtools or carrying loads over rough terrain and with measures of aerobic and muscular fitness. The test's length ensures that successful participants will have the capacity to perform prolonged arduous work under adverse conditions, with a reserve to meet emergencies.

10. ABOUT THE COMMUNITY:

Mooretown Rancheria of the Concow-Maidu Tribe of Native Americans is a federally recognized tribe, located in Butte County, California. The Concow-Maidu are descendants of ancient Northwestern Maidu who migrated to the foothills twenty-five miles east of Oroville in Butte County. The Tribe settled on the Mooretown Ridge, between the Middle Fork and the South Fork of the Feather River, where the Maidu language developed.

The 316-acre Rancheria, located in Butte County, grew from a Community Center in 1992 to a residential community of 77 homes, tribal government administration, community center, a childcare facility, gymnasium, mini mart/gas station, KOA RV park, smoke shop, hotel, brewery, casino and in the near future the construction of a state of the art fire center that will provide Life and Safety services to the community of Mooretown, wildland and aviation management, prevention and education and a training center that will provide much needed training of NWCG and CSFM courses for Indian Country. Mooretown Rancheria is located in the city of Oroville, CA. 5 minutes from downtown and 10 minutes from the beautiful Lake Oroville, approximately 70 miles north of Sacramento, California's State Capitol.

Oroville is the county seat of Butte County, California. The population was 15,506 at the 2010 census, up from 13,004 at the 2000 census.

Oroville is positioned off of Highway 70 and is in close proximity to Highway 99, which connects Butte County with Interstate 5, which travels the length of California. Oroville is approximately 65 miles north of Sacramento, the California State Capitol. Oroville is a good 2.5 hours from the San Francisco Bay Area and Reno.

Oroville is situated on the banks of the Feather River where it flows out of the Sierra Nevada onto the flat floor of the California Central Valley. It was established as the head of navigation on the Feather River to supply gold miners during the California Gold Rush. Gold found at Bidwell Bar, one of the first gold mining sites in California, brought thousands of prospector to the Oroville area seeking riches, oro Spanish for gold.
